SAVING ON TUITIONS

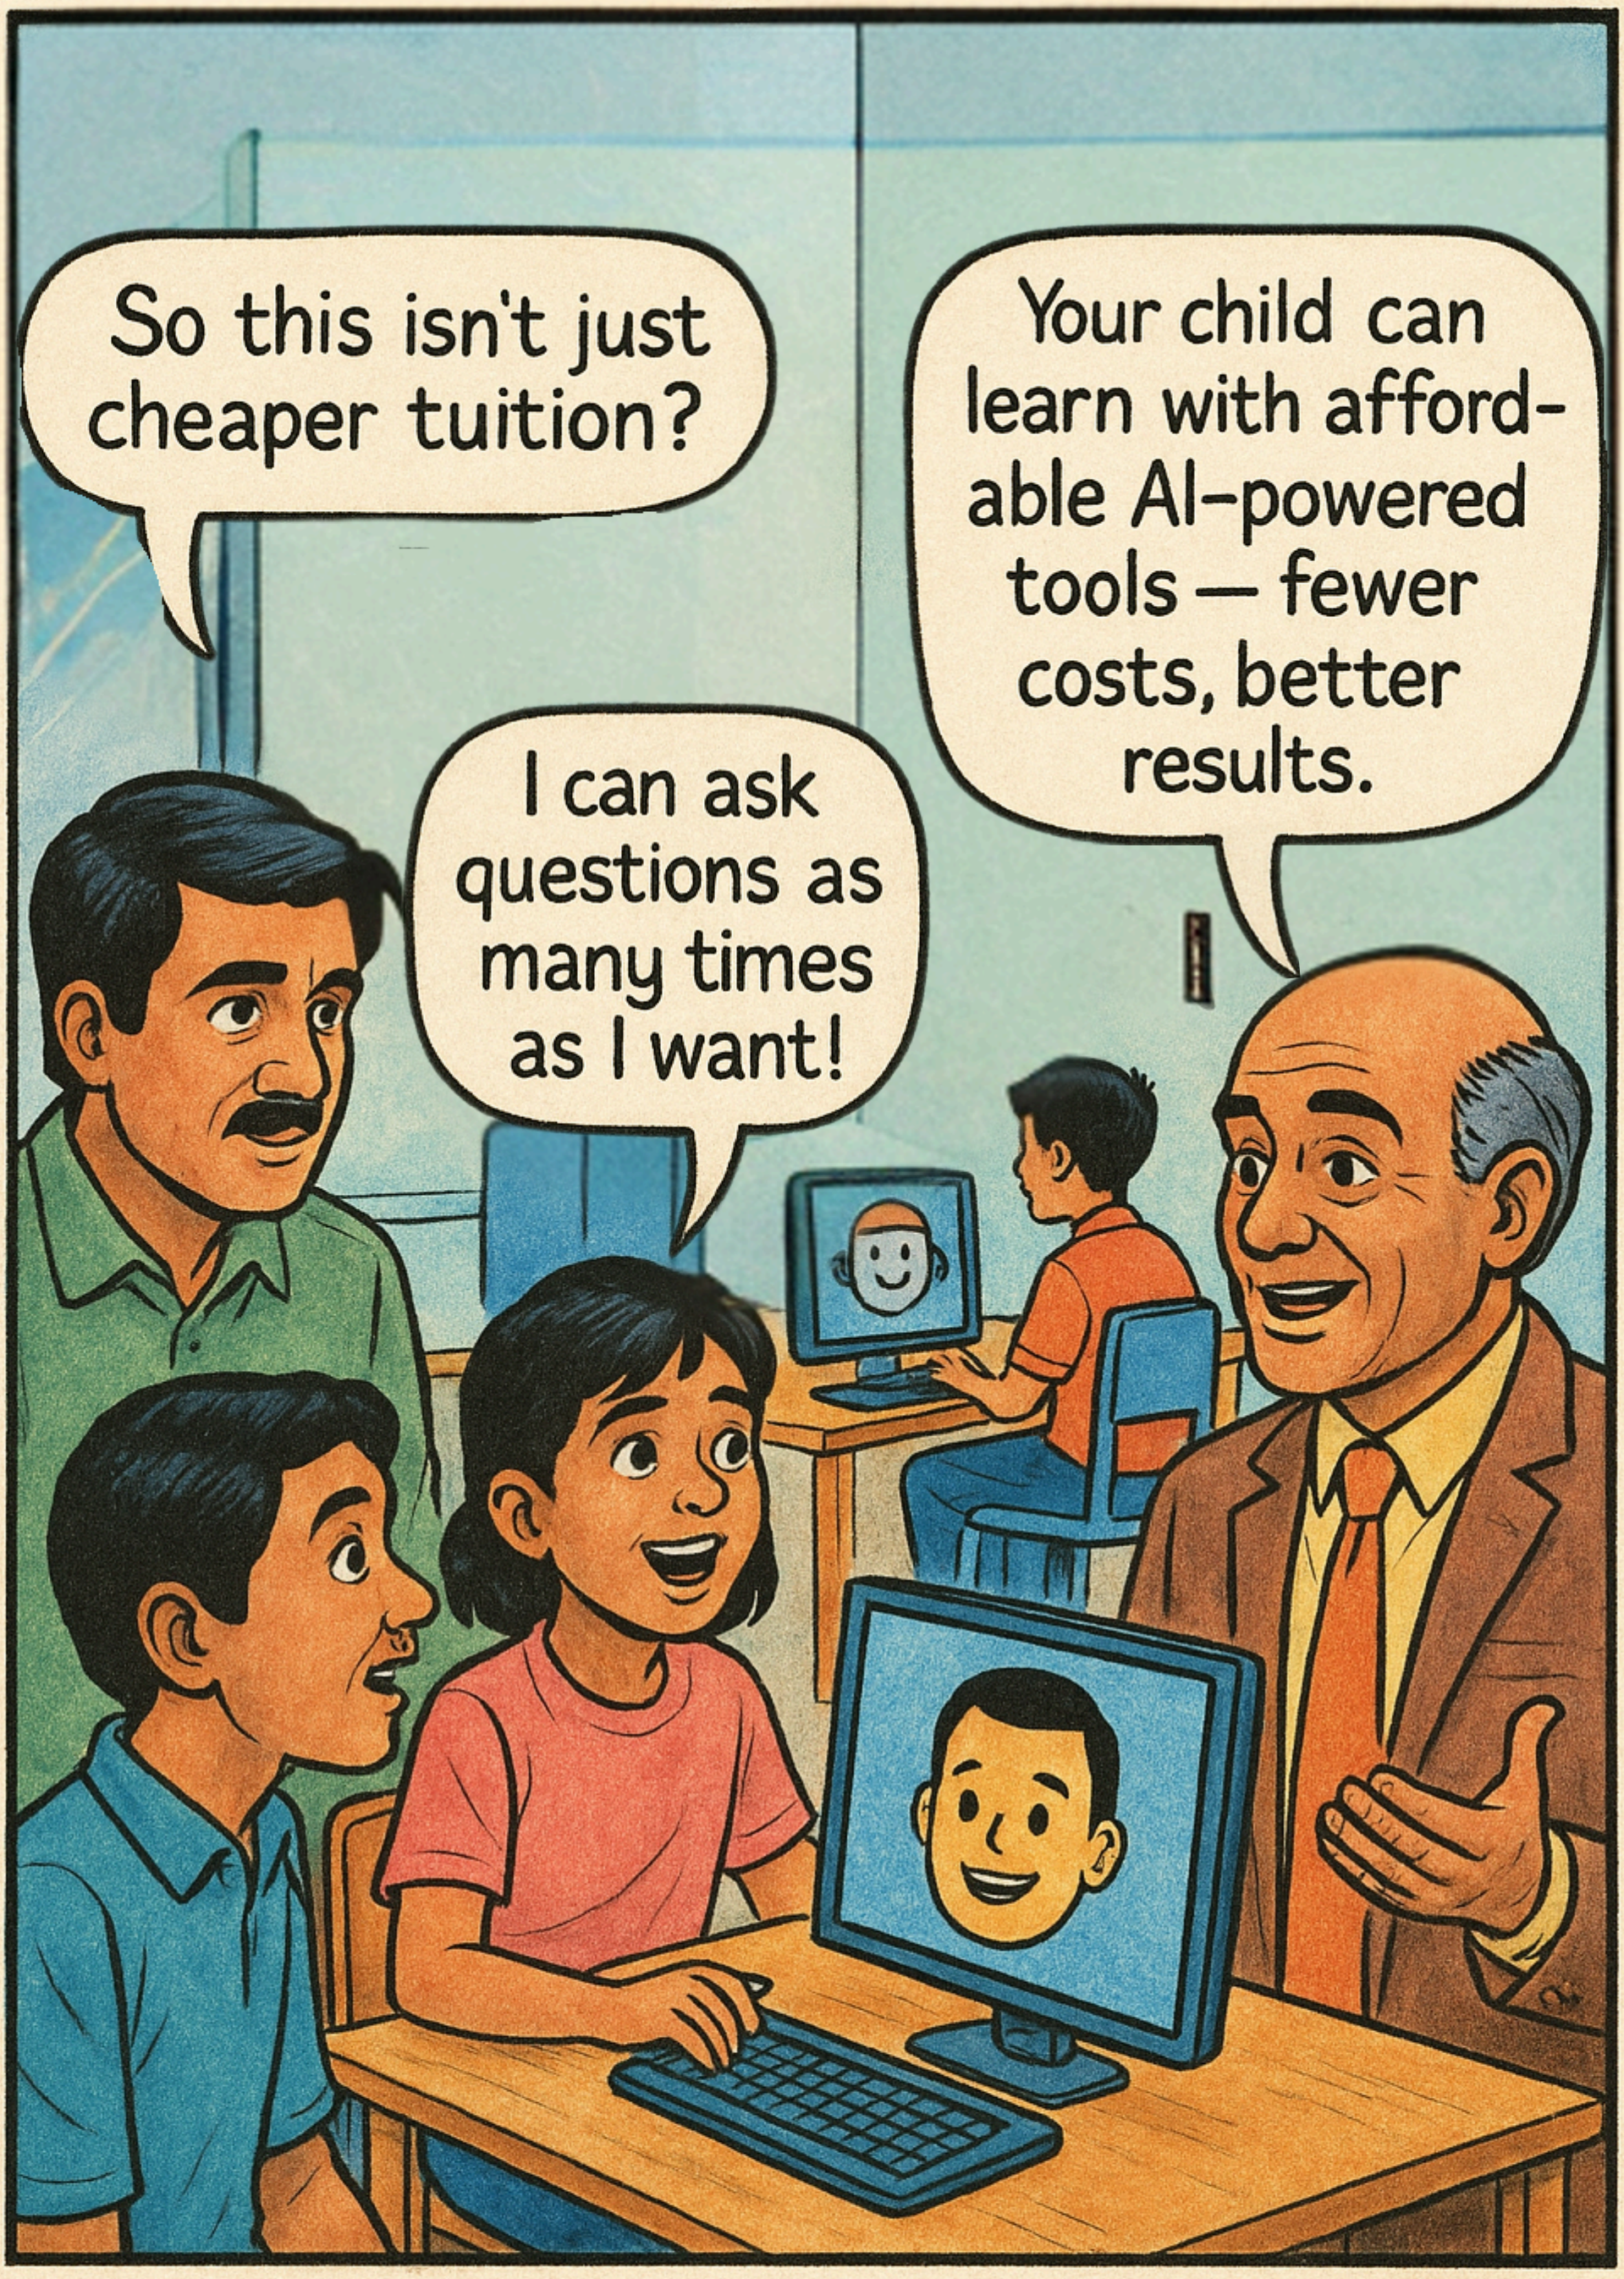

Anu, these tuition fees keep climbing and I'm worried about your performance.

Dad, I want to do well in exams—but this coaching is so expensive.

TUTION BILL

There has to be a smarter way than spending so much and yet not knowing if it's effective.

Dr. Malpani meet Mr. Rao and Anu

The AI tracks each child's weak areas and gives targeted practice.

And I can even track what you're doing!

Look, Dad – it showed I improved in maths this week!

This transparency means you save money and still aim for higher marks.

But what about distractions? Screens worry me.

These PCs are education-first: curated apps, safe access, supervised sessions.

I feel more confident about this than paying for unchecked tuition bills.

You're not paying for hype – you're investing in measurable progress.

AND WE SPENT FAR LESS THAN BEFORE. THIS IS THE CHANGE WE NEEDED.

BETTER MARKS + LOWER COST + REAL LEARNING — THAT'S GOAL.

Dad, I scored higher this term – and I actually understood what I learned!
